

BEING PREPARED TO SHINE IN THE EARLY YEARS

Are you a Reception teacher / Early Years lead? Are you confident describing what you do, why you do it and the impact your practice and provision has on children's learning?

If not, this webinar may be for you. We will explore the Education Inspection Framework and expectations in the Early Years. We will discuss:

- The new Ofsted framework and 'Stronger Foundations in the First Years of School' Research Publication
- Curriculum and Assessment in the Early Years – intent, implementation and impact
- The importance of an irresistible and appropriately challenging learning environment – indoors and outdoors
- How to confidently share with other professionals why you and your team do what you do and the impact it has on children's learning and development
